The Ancient Latin Mass

Statement from Archbishop William Nolan, Archbishop of Glasgow

“In July 2021, Pope Francis issued a decree, Traditionis Custodes, regulating the celebration of Mass according to the 1962 Missal.

Though his decree states that such celebrations should not take place in a parish church, the authorities in Rome have now given permission to the Archdiocese for the 1962 Latin Mass to be celebrated in St Brigid's, Toryglen. St Brigid's will now be the sole venue for such Masses within the Archdiocese. Mass in St Brigid's is celebrated at 9.30 am on Sundays.

This means that from 1st May 2023 the 1962 Latin Mass will no longer be celebrated in Immaculate Heart of Mary, Balornock.

Traditionis Custodes also asks that a priest be appointed to have pastoral care of those with a devotion to the pre-Vatican II Mass. I have appointed Fr Gerard Byrne to this role and am grateful to him for accepting this responsibility.

I am grateful to Fr Mark Morris for the care he has shown over the years to those celebrating the Latin Mass in Immaculate Heart of Mary. And while I know that many will be disappointed that they will have to travel to another parish, I hope that they will be reassured that Mass according to the 1962 Missal is still available in the Archdiocese.”

“Love and Mercy: Faustina” (DVD)

The incredible true story of St Faustina and the message of Divine Mercy is now documented in the critically acclaimed film “Love and Mercy: Faustina”, which follows the incredible call of St Faustina, designated by our Lord himself as the “Secretary” and “Apostle” of his Mercy.

A powerful docudrama, it portrays the life of St Faustina from her early life and calling to the religious life, to the apparitions of Jesus and the promulgation of the devotion throughout the world today. Copies £9.95. Order from Fr Byrne.
